Figure 1 is a map of the study area in the Kanto Plain. The main map shows the Tone River (利根川) and its surrounding regions, including Maebashi (前橋), Maebashi City (前橋市), and Maebashi District (前橋郡). The map includes a legend for river types: large river (大川), small river (小川), dry river (干川), intermittent river (間断川), and seasonal river (季節川). A scale bar indicates 0 to 10 km. An inset map at the bottom shows a detailed view of the Tone River area, including the Tone River Delta (利根川三角洲), Tone River Mouth (利根川河口), and various locations like Maebashi (前橋), Maebashi City (前橋市), and Maebashi District (前橋郡). The inset map also includes a legend for river types and a scale bar.
